

"A New Generation on a Firm Foundation"

What if our visas don't come in in time?

Hallelujah!" I blurted almost before the border official had left the bus. We were in the United States and we knew it was the prayers of God's people that allowed that to happen. For the past year we had been ministering only in Canada because our religious workers visas required a year out and reapplication. Since the last time we applied the rules had changed which made the whole process much more drawn out. As it got closer and closer to our Pennsylvania tour we began to get more and more nervous. What if our visas don't come in in time? These churches are expecting us. The more we prayed about it, the more peace I felt that if God opens the doors for us to do ministry He will make sure we can get there some how.

We were almost to the first Sunday of our tour and the visas still weren't in so we decided, since it was only 6 hours away and the next Sunday wasn't filled, we would drive down in our car. Maybe they would be more likely to let us across since it was just over night and we didn't have our bus, the sound equipment or the kids. Well, after 45 minutes at the border and some helpful advice from the border official we were able to head down to Pittsburg, PA.

That bought us an extra 2 weeks at home so we figured there shouldn't be any problem with the visas getting in now. Again they were sent back to the church that was applying for us for more information, so still no visas. Once again we made the trip to Pennsylvania in our car, this time spending 2 hours at the border, but with more helpful information on what to do to get across. The next weekend we knew we couldn't do it that way because we were to be in North Carolina which is a 14 hour drive. Too far to go for the weekend. Everyone we knew at home and all our daughter's friends and teachers from her college were praying that week that we would be able to get across the border with the whole family and bus. After a restless night we headed out. When we arrived at the border and the border official began questioning us about the purpose of our trip I was preparing myself for heading inside for a long haul. But the way he worded his questions somehow enabled Lloyd to answer with the answer they were looking for. The next thing we knew he was telling us to have a safe trip. How could I hold my tongue until we pulled away? I wanted to shout it from the roof top, "WE MADE IT! Praise the Lord!!!"

Our trip was bookended with special occasions. Our first Sunday, Mother's Day, we also celebrated Katelynn's graduation from Fire School of Ministry. We're so proud of her heart to serve God in any way He leads her. She's doing what she always felt she would, working with children as the kids' worship leader at Concord First Assembly.

Our bus parked in Dillsburg PA. Praise God, someone donated enough for all the rear tires to be replaced! →

News and Praise reports

Testimony of father of a teenage girl.

"Hi Lloyd. last night I'm getting ready for bed when my daughter comes down the stairs sobbing uncontrollably. The first thought to go through my mind was that someone must have died. She just wasn't able to get any words out. After calming her down and reassuring her that I would love her no matter what, she confided to me that she had been doing wrong sexually and wanted to stop. Her words were "The evangelist Lloyd said you have to humble yourself and confess to someone in order to be free, so I'm confessing this to you".

We prayed and I passed on some of your tips for keeping pure, reassured her of my and God's love for her, told her I would keep her covered in prayer concerning this and put her to bed. I just want you to know that you have even managed to penetrate the wall of teenage angst of our young people present in church sitting there, in their conspiratorial huddle looking uninterested. Your message is getting through and you are making a difference."

In PA. we did a special service regarding inner healing and had a lady who had been deeply hurt, get powerfully delivered through teaching, prayer and the ministry of the Holy Spirit.

In PA at another church a couple came to us for prayer. The lady had been struggling with all types of demonic oppression. Cathy and I prayed with her and her husband for deliverance and healing and they both felt they had really been touched by God's spirit and changed by his power. Praise God!

A pastor wrote me; "This guy in our men's group said "It all happened for me when that guy with the chain came. I was a snake shedding it's skin." I lost it...I just balled like a baby." He started coming to the church after I did his wedding. He has never left! God used you and your family AGAIN to reach another one!"

We finished our trip on a high note, in Concord, North Carolina for Katelynn's and Ryan Florke's wedding. Deanna came from China with baby Aaron (our first grand-child) to celebrate with us. We were able to take a week and vacation with our family reunited. The only one missing was our son-in-law Drew who stayed in China with some important business there.

What a wonderful time we had all together again. The wedding went just as planned, we could see God's favour in all the details. It was a beautiful outdoor wedding celebrating with about 200 friends and family. We pray God's blessing on their new life together.
