

Summer 2019

"I feel like the past few weeks, my whole life perspective has been changed around, including all the issues I had with food."

It's so fun watching God set people free! After Cathy had spent an hour or so doing inner healing prayer with a young woman, she could only hope that God had done a deep lasting work. This beautiful, young woman, Nora, had been struggling for years with an eating disorder. She had tried everything she knew of to fight it, but could never seem to overcome. She later told Lloyd and Cathy, "I never really believed that I would get "better" properly because I always ended up relapsing in the last when I tried to get better. . ."

"I was quite depressed and in a dark place when you and the family came to our home, and when you took the time to sit down and pray with me it really meant a lot." Cathy helped Nora follow her negative emotions to find out the lie she was believing about herself and her circumstances. When she offered her belief to God he spoke truth into her spirit and gave her peace where there had been a storm.

"Honestly I think that when Cathy prayed with me, something must have changed both inside me and around me spiritually because the past few weeks have been the most positive time in my life. This has probably been the longest time that I've stayed "good" in my entire life!"

What an encouragement those words were to us. To know that as we act in obedience and partner with God lives are being changed. Thank you for your prayerful and financial support that helps make this possible. As we enter the summer season we appreciate knowing your thoughts and prayers are with us.

FAMILY UPDATES!

On Wednesday, June 5th Garrett (our oldest son and music producer) married Angie Kalmar. What a beautiful outdoor wedding!

Presenting Garrett & Angie Vandenberg!

It rained till almost 3:30 and then for 1.5 hours it was dry enough to have a wonderful ceremony. The two preachers did such a quality job of really honoring Jesus and sprinkling a good bit of humor into the mix. We loved it! Getting the pictures done with rain coming sure speeded up that process... The newly married couple will live in Brantford, Ontario. We're praying their marriage will be a continuation of the beautiful wedding event.

Evan is headed out west for the summer to work. He is staying with one of Cathy's best friends' family. Pray his trip goes well and he will grow in wisdom and experience.

Last and certainly not least, Katelynn (our second daughter) and her husband Ryan Florke are expecting a baby girl in early August! Fortunately we have a couple bookings in that area at that time, so Cathy will most likely be able to be there to help out after the baby is born. Please pray that all goes well with this exciting event.
